PRECIOUS LIVES BURIAL

The loss of a child in pregnancy or at birth is a very difficult time for families. Parents often have many questions including how to care for the bodily remains of the child. Catholic Funeral & Cemetery Services of Colorado ministers to families during this time of need. Children who were lost during a pregnancy or at birth are welcomed into our care for placement into one of our Catholic Cemeteries at no cost to the family. As a ministry of the Catholic Archdiocese of Denver, we live our vocational call of the corporal work of mercy to bury the dead. No matter if families are Catholic, Protestant, another faith tradition or of no faith, we serve all families.

Please call us at (303) 502-9666 after experiencing the unexpected loss of your precious child.

CRYPT OF ALL SOULS

The Catholic Church has permitted cremation for over 50 years. The Church teaches that cremated remains are to be kept together (not scattered or divided) to respect the body as the temple of the Holy Spirit and interred in the consecrated grounds of a Catholic cemetery. If a loved one's cremated remains are not in a final resting place, please allow us to take your loved one into our care and be reverently interred in our Catholic cemeteries. Financial concerns should never stop one from choosing a place of permanent remembrance. As such, we provide the dignified placement of cremated remains in the Crypt of All Souls, free of charge, to people of all faiths.

Please call us at (720) 684-5270 to discuss placement of your loved one in the Crypt of All Souls.

For more information, please visit

FIRST FRIDAY MASS

cfcscolorado.org/events/first-friday-mass/

We invite you to join us at 6:30 PM on the first Friday of every month in our Mt. Olivet Chapel as we come together to offer Mass for all souls taken into our care. Praying for the dead is rooted in sacred scripture.

"Therefore, [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin." — 2 Maccabees 12:46

URN PRICE LIST

Human Death and Eternal Life

Even death cannot rob us of our fundamental dignity as human persons. As painful as dying and death are to the human community, Christians are confident that, as they have imitated Christ in His death, so shall they imitate Him in His resurrection.

Respect for the Cremated Remains of the Body

The remains of cremated bodies should be treated with the same respect given to the corporeal remains of a human body. This includes the manner in which they are carried, the care and attention to appropriate placement and transportation, and final resting place. The cremated remains of the body should be inurned in a mausoleum or columbarium; they may also be placed in a grave in a cemetery.

The practice of scattering cremated remains in the sea, from the air, on the ground, or keeping in the home of a relative or friend are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires.

State or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

COMFORT CROSS

As part of our core purpose of “Filling the Void of Loss with Faith,” we offer a Comfort Cross to all families that come into the care of our funeral homes. The Comfort Cross is made of stone from the Holy Land in Jerusalem and has been blessed by a Catholic priest. It is cut, vertically, into two pieces. One half stays with the deceased loved one, while the other half stays with the family. This sacramental helps to demonstrate, in a physical way, the reality that we are still spiritually connected with our deceased loved ones through Jesus Christ.

The Comfort Cross is just one way in which we assist the families in our care with “Filling the Void of Loss with Faith” as they journey through the grieving process.

GRIEF SUPPORT PROGRAM

CFCS of Colorado has partnered with St. Raphael Counseling (a ministry of the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Charities) to provide a Grief Support Program to the families we serve. Through this partnership, CFCS of Colorado offers a tiered grief support program to meet the needs of our families and to help families navigate the journey of grief.
